

Venice Nokomis Woman's Club

Membership Meeting: November 11, 2021

The Venice Nokomis Woman's Club met at Café Venice where a luncheon was held after a tour of Venice Theater. A brief meeting was also held there.

Liz Mazzu, President opened the meeting and welcomed everyone in attendance. She also told the members that it was decided that at the January 13, 2022 meeting, members are asked to bring a friend.

Laura Hester, Vice President inducted five new members who were also presented with flowers and name badges. The new members are: Lois Johanns, Sally Schmidt, Natalie Sheehan, Marti Runnels, and Maria Ruetz. Liz Mazzu, president, welcomed the new members.

Kathy Price, Second Vice President announced that the December 9, 2021 meeting will be held at Cassariano Restaurant, Venice Ave for our holiday luncheon. A Yankee Gift Swap will also take place for those who would like to participate with a $10.00 gift. Kathy further explained that with a Yankee Swap, gifts can be swapped for another. More information will be sent to members.

Kathy Moller's October's Treasurer's Report was accepted by the members. A motion was made by Kathy Price and Lorraine Finizio seconded the motion.

Lorraine Finizio, Director at Large thanked the decorating committee members for making the Xmas tree decorations the day before. She also mentioned that those who volunteered will be decorating the tree November 29. She also explained where our tree is in Blalock Park. More information as to when the tree lighting is scheduled for will be sent to members. At this time it is scheduled for December 11.

On behalf of Tricia Cook, Fundraising and Special Events, Liz Mazzu reminded members to collect travel items in hotels for the Backpack Angels as members may be traveling during the holidays.

Liz Mazzu called on Linda Ecker, Chairperson of Outreach to state the names of those members who still need to pick up their Salvation Army Angels. Those members were not in attendance at the meeting/luncheon.

Laura Hester, Vice President explained the opportunity for Library Interns for high school students.

Liz Mazzu, president closed the meeting and thanked members for attending.

Respectfully Submitted,

Liz Mazzu, president substituting for Pat Church, Secretary
